

WEEK/DAY: 1/1

CLASS: Asian Representation in Mainstream Media

TOPIC(S): Introduction to Course and Frequency of Asians in Movies

Objective:

- Understand basic concepts about Asian Representation and how it is still relating to Asians today as it did in the past, 20-40 years ago
- See the Asian community represented in various media, via movies, tv shows, magazines, etc.

Content/Materials:

- Websites seen in Unit 1 Citations
- Breakfast at Tiffany's
- Clips from Parasite
- Clips from 16 Candles

Instructional Sequence:

Time	Activity	Notes
0:00	Introduction to the Class
0:05
0:10	Discuss the Syllabus	Structure of the class, grading of the class, general layout of how units will progress, etc.
0:15
0:20
0:25	Introduction of what is an Asian	Discuss what you know so far and what you think you know?
0:30
0:35
0:40
0:45	Question and Answer Section	Quick Post questions should be asked to gauge student's understanding
0:50
0:55	Introduction of Representation - Representation of Asians in media today? I.e. are Asians being portrayed by REAL Asians in shows and media?	Will not finish today
1:00
1:05
1:10

1:15	Assigning of the HW to encompass Intro of what is an Asian	Next 15 minutes will go over what the HW will entail and answer any questions students may have about the HW
1:20
1:25	End the Class Day	