Name: _____

Period: _____

Date: _____

South Asian Quiz (20 points)

Multiple Choice (10 points)

1. How is Asian American panethnicity problematic?
   a. it separates each culture from one another, creating too much of a diversity
   b. it lumps drastically different cultures and its backgrounds into one group
   c. there isn't such thing as panethnicity
   d. it combats systems of chauvinism and inequality in the community

2. How is Kamala portrayed as an "ideal" Indian woman?
   a. working for her PhD at CalTech
   b. is an engineer for Stanford
   c. all of the above
   d. none of the above

3. What was the fault in Helen K. Ho's study of how Asian men personally relate to Asian male characters presented in American films and television shows?
   a. low number of participants
   b. somewhat small range of asian male character representation
   c. all of the above
   d. none of the above

4. Which South Asian characters were included in the Harvard article?
   a. Rajesh Koothrappali in The Big Bang Theory
   b. Mindy Lahiri in The Mindy Project
   c. Tom Haverford in Parks and Recreation
   d. all of the above
   e. a and b
   f. a and c
   g. none of the above

5. What did chapter 1 of the Harvard article discuss about?
    a. Indian / Pakistani American male characters in television shows and movies
    b. South Asian American portrayal in American news outlet
    c. Indian / Pakistani American men to obtain romantic relationship
    d. Research methods and limitations

Short Free Response (10 points)

6. Explain, in your own words, how the first episode of Never Have I Ever emphasizes the culture of South Asians and South Asian American. What are some examples? Also include your personal thoughts on these examples.

7. In the Harvard article on Effects of American Media Representation of South Asian Americans, given that definition of immigrant generations (first, second, and third), provide examples in media that illustrate characteristics of each generation (provide an example of each first, second, and third generation immigrants of South Asian characters). Include how those types of characters differ from one another regarding Unit 2's topic of accuracy.